

LEADWORTHY® CERTIFICATION TRAINING

Preparing Teachers to Deliver Any of the Leadworthy® Courses

When students discover their self-worth and they approach life ready to achieve, the opportunities are endless.

Introduction

Leadworthy Courses focus on critical, life-changing skills for students, grades five through twelve. The Leadworthy Certification Training prepares teachers to deliver any of the Leadworthy Courses (Intermediate, Middle School and High School). Schools can offer these courses in semester or yearlong formats.

Participant Outcomes

Course Leaders will learn to:

- Lead lessons for intermediate, middle-school and high-school
- Reinforce principles and model skills from the Capturing Kids' Hearts® 1 Training
- Use the digital Leadworthy Course Leader Guide
- Navigate supplemental resources on CKH.org
- Implement a successful class with practical guidelines

Approach

- Two-hour, virtual and interactive experience
- Learn course principles and how to use the online Leadworthy Course Leader Guide

Who Makes a Great Course Leader?

A strong, trusting connection with students is essential, so selecting the right Leadworthy Course Leader is crucial.

The following qualities should be considered:

- Highly self-motivated and tends to take initiative
- Has a positive relationship with students and staff
- Has an outgoing and friendly personality
- Demonstrates effective communication and presentation skills
- Maintains high expectations for student performance

Prerequisite

- Capturing Kids' Hearts® 1 Training
